

---

Contents

---

|  |      |
|--|------|
| About the Editors  | vii  |
| Contributors   | ix   |
| Preface  | xvii |
| Part I Introduction and Theoretical Position  |      |
| Chapter 1 Looking for Meaning in InteractionsJaap Boonstra and Léon de Caluwé   | 3    |
| Chapter 2 Methodology of the Evidential: Research and Sense-Givingin Processes of Organisational DevelopmentAdriaan Bekman  | 29   |
| Part II Telling Stories and Investigating Realities   |      |
| Chapter 3 Applying the Narrative Approach in Organisational ChangeFrançois Breuer   | 49   |
| Chapter 4 Working with Stories: Narrative and Dialogue as Methods forLearning, Understanding and Practice ImprovementTineke Abma  | 65   |
| Part III Investigating History and Making History   |      |
| Chapter 5 Learning Histories in Learning and Change Projects: MakingHistory with a PassionGerhard Smid in discussion with Godfried den Boer,Vittorio Busato, Liesbeth Halbertsma andTonnie van der Zouwen | 81   |
| Chapter 6 Making History Together: The Learning History Method inTheory and PracticeLeen van Driel  | 95   |
| Part IV Appreciative Inquiry and Realising Innovations  |      |
| Chapter 7 Future Search: Inspiring, Discovering, Learning, Seeing,Imagining and Doing CombinedGemma van der Ploeg and Annemieke Stoppelenburg   | 119  |

|   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| Chapter 8   | A Large Group Intervention in a Chemical CompanyLuk Dewulf and Luc Verheijen   | 137 |
| Chapter 9   | Learning and Changing in an Open Space: The Dynamics of andin an Open Space EventCarla Vliex   | 155 |
| Part V Looking for Patterns and Possibilities for Innovation |   |     |
| Chapter 10  | Working Interactively with Causal Loop Diagrams: InterventionChoices and Paradoxes in Practical ApplicationsHans Vermaak                     | 175 |
| Chapter 11  | Intervening in Processes of Sense-Making: A Method forBreaking Through the Closeness of Organisational ProcessesHans de Sonnaville           | 195 |
| Chapter 12  | Interactive Interventions in Social InteractionsDick van Ginkel and Mariëtte Thijssen  | 207 |
| Part VI Learning to Reflect and Change                       |   |     |
| Chapter 13  | Organising In-Depth Learning: Change as ReflectiveSense-MakingBrechtje Kessener and Katrien Termeer  | 229 |
| Chapter 14  | A Methodology for Increasing Collective Competence:A Context for Co-Creative ChangeAndré Wierdsma  | 243 |
| Chapter 15  | Shaping a Learning Process and Realising Change: Reflection,Interaction and Cooperation Through Survey FeedbackKilian Bennebroek Gravenhorst | 261 |
| Part VII Reflecting on Acting and the Pursuit of Beauty      |   |     |
| Chapter 16  | Free Conduct as an Intervention Method: ‘Void LeadershipLacks Direction’Julien Haffmans  | 279 |
| Chapter 17  | Aesthetics in Organisations’ Work Processes: A Perspective forInterventionMathieu Weggeman and Irene Lammers                                 | 295 |
| Part VIII Critical Reflection and a Look Ahead               |   |     |
| Chapter 18  | Intervention Through Interaction: A Comparative ReviewJac Geurts, Jurriaan Altena and Bart Geluk   | 313 |
| Index   |   | 337 |